POISON LEMONADE.

Sugar of Lead Used for Tartaric Acid.

Fifty Persons Made Sick and Fifteen Not Expected to Live.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., June 25. At a picnic of farmers near here last Saturday fifty persons were poisoned by drinking lemonade. Fifteen are not expected to live. It has been discovered that the confectioner who furnished the drink, in order to save lemons had used what he believed to be tartaric acid, but which now turns out to have been sugar of lead. He procured it from a druggist. The citizens upon learning of the druggist's mistake attacked his store in a body and demolished it. The druggist, being forewarned, escaped to the woods and has not since been seen.

ANOTHER BANK ROBBERY.

A Revolver at the Cashier's Head.

TELLURIDE, Col., June 23. Yesterday morning while the bookkeeper of the San Miguel Valley Bank was alone in the bank, three men entered, and presenting pistols at his head, demanded the funds of the institution. After securing the money they joined a fourth robber, who was holding the horses just outside the bank, and left town on the run, firing shots in the air. It is not yet known what amount they secured. Several sheriff's parties are in close pursuit.

DEATH OF MRS. R. B. HAYES

At Her Residence at Fremont, Ohio.

FREMONT, Ohio, June 25. Mrs. Hayes died at 6.30 this morning. Mrs. Hayes' maiden name was Lucy Ware Webb. She was born in 1831 at Chillicothe, Ohio. She was married in 1852 and at the breaking out of the war of the rebellion her family consisted of her mother, her two brothers, and her four little boys. Her husband and both brothers immediately entered the army and from that time until the close of the war her home was a refuge for wounded, sick and furloughed soldiers, going to or returning from the front. She spent two winters in camp with her husband in Virginia, and after the battle at South Mountain, where he was badly wounded, she hastened east and joined him at Middleton, Md., and later spent much time in a hospital near Frederick City.

She was one of the originators of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' home. While her husband was Governor of Ohio she took an active interest in all charitable institutions of the State. During the four years of her life at the White House she was distinguished by the graceful cordiality with which she received all who came to see her. Since the retirement of her husband from public life she has been an ardently interested member of the Woman's Relief Corps and served during successive years as President of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church. Her funeral will take place on Friday.

TROUBLE IN COFFEE.

Heavy Decline on the New York Exchange.

NEW YORK, June 25. The speculation in Brazil coffee in the New York exchange this morning was of a semi-panicky character. Early cables from Havre and Hamburg reported a most marked decline and all parties here were anxious to sell. Large blocks of coffee were thrown on the market at steadily yielding prices to a point at which they could be marketed. This first call lasted fully twenty-five minutes at which time 40,000 bags were sold and at a decline of 80 to 90 points, with very irregular feeling.

DOCTORS IN COUNCIL.

American Medical Association.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 25. The fortieth annual meeting of the American Medical Association opened this morning in Music Hall. Hundreds of members were present, many being accompanied by their families. There were also present about fifty exhibitors of medical appliances.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. H. R. Storer, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements. Letters of regret were read or announced from Bishop Haskins, of Rhode Island; Dr. Storer, of Boston; James B. Kierman, of Illinois; President Harrison and members of his Cabinet; Sir James Grant and Sir Charles Tupper, of Canada. Addresses of welcome were made by Gov. H. W. Ladd in behalf of the State and by Dr. James H. Eldridge, ex-President of the Rhode Island Medical Society.

NOTES AT JOHNSTOWN.

New Buildings Arrived.

JOHNSTOWN, June 25. Twenty-four of the Chicago portable houses arrived this morning. They will be placed in position this afternoon and occupied to-night. Only one body was found this morning.

Miss Clara Barton's Work.

Clara Barton, of the Red Cross Society, arranged with Gen. Hastings to send during the week twenty-five more destitute people, largely females, to Asbury Park, N. J., where Col. Elliot F. Shepard, of the Mail and Express, has offered to maintain them for a month.

CRIMES AND THEIR CONSEQUENCES.

A Woman Hung for Murder.

PHILADELPHIA, June 25. Mrs. Sarah Jane Whiteling was hanged this morning for the deliberate poisoning of her husband and two children with arsenic, for the purpose of securing the small insurances which she carried on each of their lives. During the morning she never showed the slightest evidence of weakness and frequently expressed her pleasure at the prospect of meeting her husband and children. She spent the last night in walking about her cell singing and praying. The physicians present at the execution were surprised at the woman's exhibition of courage. Although all agreed that she [illegible] evidence of an [illegible] mind.

Taken His Own Life.

A BATTLE WITH THE INDIANS

Reported from Helena, Montana.

HELENA, Mont., June 25. News is just received from the Flathead reservation that Sheriff Heyborn and posse, who went to the reserve to arrest three Indian murderers, are having a battle with the Indians who refuse to give up the men wanted. Two Indians are reported killed. Agent Romer has called on the officer at Fort Missoula for troops.

OATS AND RYE.

Estimated Yield in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 25. The State Board of Agriculture estimates that 127,000,000 bushels of oats will be harvested in Illinois this year and 4,072,000 bushels of rye. The average yield of oats is estimated at thirty-three bushels to the acre in an area of 3,850,000 acres.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

Still a Glimmer of Hope.

NEW YORK, June 25. A special from Panama says people here are beginning to be very hopeful again over the resumption of work on the canal and it is stated that the necessary preliminary arrangements have been made with certain financial enterprises in Paris for the resumption of work at the end of the present year.

GOLD IN PILES

Big Find in the Michigan Gold Mine.

ISHPEMING, Mich., June 25. One hundred and fifty pounds of quartz, carrying gold at the rate of $50,000 to a ton, were brought in from the Michigan gold mine yesterday. The discovery has caused much excitement.

Decisions in Law.

The following decisions in law have been received by Charles F. Sweet, Esq., Clerk of the Eastern Law District:

HANCOCK COUNTY CASES.

Rescript—The decision of the presiding Justice that the original deed was lost and the register who made it being dead, rendered the record competent evidence.

Its probative force was a question for the jury.

The statements of the witness Hopkins giving the admission of Crabtree as to his own title were admissible, as the defendant claimed under Crabtree and the admission was made while he was in possession.

PENOBSCOT COUNTY CASES.

Wm. Edgar Wellington, Aplt. vs. James Milliken. Exceptions sustained. Demurrer sustained. Plff. may amend upon Statute terms.

Rescript—A declaration upon a written contract for the sale of goods, averring a subsequent parol agreement to change the place of delivery, without stating the day upon which the same was made, is bad on demurrer.

PISCATAQUIS COUNTY CASES.

Rescript—After procuring an insurance on his buildings, the defendant mortgaged the property to the Piscataquis Savings Bank, and also deposited with the Bank, the Insurance Policy as collateral security for the mortgage loan. The Bank thus became at least an equitable assignee of the policy, which interest is superior to that of a subsequent attaching creditor by trustee process.

Rescript—The plaintiff's debts were contracted after the conveyance from Al Clapp to his wife, Abbie A. Clapp. The defendant holds the title conveyed to Abbie A. Clapp.

To prevail against that title the burden is on the plaintiff to prove that the conveyance by Al. Clapp to Abbie A., was made for the purpose of defrauding his creditors. On this point we think the verdict is sustained by the evidence.

Henry B. Galusha vs. Joseph S. Bradstreet & al. "Exceptions and motion overruled."

Rescript—The defendant made no objection to the plaintiff's evidence, as not supporting his declaration. The amendment did not state any different cause of action, but simply particularized and restricted, what had been too generally stated without sufficient accuracy. It was legally allowable. The time and terms of allowing the amendment were within the judicial discretion of the presiding justice, which in this case seems to have been reasonably exercised, and is not reviewable.

The evidence for the plaintiff supported his amended declaration, and the jury could properly base the verdict upon it.

There is no such preponderance of evidence the other way, as would authorize setting the verdict aside.

Castine Letter.

[Regular Correspondence of Whig and Courier.]

The town schools closed last week. The public examinations in the schools of the town are improving. The town system is working satisfactorily, and is a saving over the district system.

F. W. Foster has resigned as one of the school committee, and W. G. Sargent has been elected to take his place, a very wise selection. All the teachers are doing good work.

Henry McLaughlin, Esq., and family arrived Saturday, and will remain during the summer.

We are glad to see Gen. C. W. Roberts again in town.

Work has commenced on a granite wharf at High Head.

Mr. Lovejoy and wife arrived, Saturday, to take charge of the Acadian. We wish Mr. Lovejoy success.

E. P. Walker, Esq. is in town.

David Durbar, Esq., aged eighty-one years, died at his residence on Tuesday morning, after a short sickness. His funeral took place Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. Mr. Ives Cushman, wife and daughter, and Dea. Thomas E. Hale went to Portland, Monday, to attend the Congregational Conference.

The Castine band has sent to Boston for their uniforms, which will add much to their appearance.

The steamer has commenced to make Sunday trips to Belfast to connect with Bangor and Boston boats.

J. W. Dresser returned from Boston, Saturday.

Willie Wetherbee came home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swazey, of Bucksport, spent Sunday here.

One of the most curious among all the curious presents which the Emperor of Germany has recently received as products of his African possessions is a transparent walking-stick made of rhinoceros skin. It appears that "Reichscommissar Hauptmann Wissmann" sent a large piece of skin over to a friend at Hamburg, who gave it into the hands of a clever carver to be made into walking sticks. By means of [illegible] the carver has produced [illegible] of a beautiful [illegible] will be arranged, and the proceeds of the sale [illegible] for the Chapel.

Mr. Caldwell Sweet and Miss Annie Sweet went down river yesterday on the steamer Katahdin for a short visit.

The first Roll fruit of the season arrived in the city, yesterday. It comes from the mountains of Cielly, and is a little line of fruit.

It is reported that a new Lodge of Odd Fellows will be organized in a short time in Hermon and it is expected that there will be quite a large number of charter members.

Repairs are being made on the wharf of the Boston & Bangor Steamship Company, which will somewhat improve it. Some of the logs which had rotted are being taken out and replaced by sound ones.

A change has been made in the wire nail card. The entire base price of wire nails has been changed, making a slight increase in certain kinds of nails. This change does not effect any but wire nails.

Railroad Commissioners Morrland, Wildes and Bowers were in the city at the Penobscot Exchange Sunday night and left yesterday morning on the St. John train on a trip of inspection to several points.

Mrs. E. C. Weston kindly presented a large and very handsome basket of flowers to the children of the primary class of the Columbia Street Baptist Church, yesterday, who enjoyed a drive about the city, and over to Brewer.

The residents on Thomas Hill and vicinity have been well serenaded lately by a band of wandering minstrels who discourse very good music accompanied by banjos, harmonicas, bones and other talking instruments.

Bangor Canton, Patriarchs Militant will hold a meeting this evening to decide how large a squad to turn out in the procession on July Fourth. It is probable that a large number will turn out and they will make a fine appearance.

Mrs. Helen Winslow Potter went to Rockland yesterday where she assisted the Ruggles Street Church quartet of Boston in giving a concert in Farwell Hall last evening. With this talent a most enjoyable concert must have been given.

New steel stoves are making their appearance in the city. They are made in a very solid manner and bolted together substantially, being made to withstand any amount of slamming and banging. The outside is of very heavy cast iron.

A gentleman who owns quite a large hay field near an electric light thinks it would be a good idea to cut it by the rays of electric light instead of in the hot sun, and may carry out the idea. Whether he can make hay by the light remains to be seen.

A little boy on the west side is responsible for this one. A gentleman was leading a mare and her colt by, when the little fellow asked, "Did that big one hatch the little one?" The youth has a hen and some chickens, which may have suggested the idea.

Mr. F. H. Small put a large thermometer on the post in front of his store, yesterday, for the benefit of the public. It is in an oak case lettered on the side, "East Side Thermal Record," and will be quite a convenience to persons interested in the temperature.

A very beautiful basket of choice roses was noticed at Harlow's store, yesterday, which was sent to the graduating exercises at St. John's Catholic church, yesterday afternoon. They attracted much attention by the arrangement and handsome colors.

A drill squad of Daniel Chaplin Camp, Sons of Veterans, numbering twenty-four, is drilling every week. They will enter for the drill on July 4th, and some fine work is expected from them, as they are taking great interest in it and are looking for first prize.

Carpenters, contractors and builders are greatly delayed in obtaining the necessary timber and lumber to use in building on account of the strike which stops the filling of orders. Work on several houses in course of construction has been suspended by this means.

The work of trimming up the trees is progressing well, and much improvement is noted in the appearance of the streets. A crew of four men is at work and they will probably not complete their labors before fall, as there is a large amount of work to be done.

The city clock on the Hammond street church seems to be somewhat erratic in its movements lately, deceiving passers-by on account of its two faced dealings. A little attention would perhaps prevent some of our business men from being somewhat tardy in the morning.

The class of '63, Bowdoin College, will hold their reunion at Jewell's Island, Casco Bay, on Thursday and Friday of this week. F. H. Appleton, Esq., Mr. O. W. Davis, Jr. and Mr. Herbert White, of Chicago, who is visiting in the city will attend the reunion, which is a quarter of a century since graduation.

Mr. A. W. Hincks, whose eye was injured a few weeks ago at the Orrington ice house by a piece of steel flying into it, went to Boston yesterday to have an operation performed. The other eye became affected and it was feared that the sight of both might be lost but it is hoped by this operation that the sight of both will be saved.

Some excellent photographs of the interior and floral decorations of the First Parish church on the occasion of the Orford-Bliss wedding were taken by Weston and have been seen by a Whig reporter. They show the handsome arrangement and beautiful effect of the flowers to good advantage.

Cough Medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint. —Ernest A. Hopler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults." —Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life." —Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever." —Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

Whig and Courier.

BOUTELLE & BURR, PROPRIETORS.

O. A. BOUTELLE, Editor.

All business letters should be addressed to Boutelle & Burr, and communications intended for publication should be addressed: "Editor of Whig and Courier."

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1889.

The Democratic papers having charged that Mr. Porter, the Superintendent of the Census, was formerly a free trade Englishman, that gentleman has written a letter in which he says: "Since I have had any opinion whatever on the subject of the tariff I have been an earnest believer and advocate of protection. I was educated in the institutions of this country, not in those of England, beginning my journalistic career on a Western Republican Protection newspaper before I was twenty-one years of age, and was never an advocate of free trade in my life."

Hon. William Walter Phelps has arrived at Washington bearing the Samoan treaty. To a reporter who met him in New York Mr. Phelps said he could not talk about the treaty further than to say that it is satisfactory to all concerned in the conference and he believed it will be equally satisfactory to the public. "I think," said Mr. Phelps, "one of the most noticeable things in connection with this conference is the fact that for the first time in the history of international diplomacy the language used was English. Heretofore it had always been French."

If Chairman Brice is a Democrat he is a very recent acquisition from the Republican ranks, and his prominence as a Democrat is due entirely to his bar'l and his recent exploits as a greaser of the machine. He certainly has the requisite qualification to succeed Payne in a notoriously purchased and purchasable seat as Senator from Ohio. He has the means to represent the coal oil and boodle crowd of Democrats and will probably follow in Payne's footsteps with an "I object" whenever a monopoly is endangered.—Saint Louis Post-Dispatch.

When Democratic organs thus freely attack the recognized head of the party organization it does not look as though the factions were making much progress toward getting together. This frank admission that Mr. Brice's prominence is due entirely to his possession of a "bar'l" may serve a good purpose in the next campaign.

If they are correctly quoted, we are afraid the members of the National Democratic Committee have made a mistake in claiming the earth and all things under and above the earth as a result of the next Presidential election. The Vermont member, for instance, holds out hopes of his State, the Indiana member pooh-poohs the idea that the Republicans will carry that State, the Michigan member promises a big Democratic majority, and the gentleman from Iowa paints a glowing picture of the growth of tariff reform in Iowa. Chairman Brice should call off his committee. The National Democratic Committee knows as much about the campaign of 1892 as a last year's bird's nest. No faith whatever is to be put in the reports of "growing demands for tariff reform" in the West or elsewhere.—Memphis Avalanche.

It is evident that the rainbow campaign conducted by Mr. Brice last year has no further attractions for this Southern Democratic organ. It has good opportunity to witness the steady growth of the protection sentiment and therefore has little patience with the baseless claims about the demand for tariff reform.

Death of Mrs. Hayes.

The telegraph this morning brings the sad announcement of the death of Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes, after a short illness. Mrs. Hayes enjoyed the high esteem and respect of the entire country. During the administration of President Hayes his wife discharged the very trying duties devolving upon her as mistress of the White House with an unostentatious grace and cordiality of manner that made friends of all who met her. She was a typical American woman, patriotic in all her impulses, a loving mother and a true and helpful companion. Ex-President Hayes will have the tender sympathy of the country in the sad affliction that has visited his home.

How the Southern Vote is Suppressed.

A short time since a number of prominent Republicans in Massachusetts sent Mr. L. Edwin Dudley to South Carolina to investigate the political situation. His report was submitted to a committee consisting of Ex-Gov. Claflin, Ex-Gov. Long and others, and as it will be of general interest we publish it as follows:

"The Republican party of South Carolina was completely overthrown in 1876, and has had no position or standing since that time. The Republican organization has placed no county or State ticket in nomination since 1870, and there is not to-day a single officer of any town or county, or of the State who holds his office by election at the hands of the Republican party. There are very few white men of any prominence, position or standing in the State to-day identified with the Republican party, and these are men who hold conspicuous places in the organization. They are the men who held the federal offices until they were removed by President Cleveland.

"I have seen and talked with most of these leaders, and with many of the colored men identified with the party organization. I do not find among them anyone who has any plans for the future by which the present condition of things in the state can be changed for the better. Although the Republican Committee claims a majority of 40,000 in the state, it is without representation anywhere. In the city of Charleston there are twenty-four aldermen, but notwithstanding the fact that the colored people are largely in the majority in the city, there is not a single colored man in the board, and there is not a single white Republican. In the State legislature there are 125 members in the Lower House, thirty-three in the Senate. There is not a single white man identified with the Republican organization in either body.

"In the Lower House there are three colored Republicans, but they have been seated there on coalition tickets by the consent of the Democrats and it seems that the particular men to be chosen have been selected by the Democrats rather than by the Republicans. There are two colored men in the Lower House who have been elected by Democrats upon the Democratic ticket. In two of the counties there are a few of the colored men in local office, who have been chosen upon coalition tickets. In Charleston there is one colored man a lieutenant of police and there are some colored policemen on the streets, but I was told by a Democrat that these men were all good Democrats and if not so they could not be in their present positions. This seems to indicate that the prejudice is against the politics rather than against the color of the individuals. There are seven Congressmen and two United States Senators from this Republican State and they are all white Democrats. One district has 32,000 colored voters and 7,000 white, returns a white Democrat.

"I do not think it necessary to give at length an account of the methods employed to suppress the vote of both colored and white men if they are known to be Republicans. There is no difficulty in the State about any white man voting if he votes the Democratic ticket. There no attempt made on the part of any Democrat whom I met in the State about the fact that the vote is suppressed. All admit the fact and attempt to explain and justify their acts by the assertion that they cannot and will not be ruled by ignorance and vice. But the question is ignorance and vice does not seem to hold good if the individual is a Democrat, white or colored. The State has a registration law under the operation of which probably one-half the colored people are disfranchised legally if their law is constitutional. The only hope or suggestion for the future made by any of the Republican leaders is the expectation that Congress will enact some law, and back it up by the Federal authority, by which all men be permitted to vote, and in that way they expect to regain the control of the State.

"The Independent Republican party has not yet been fully organized, but there is a general feeling of dissatisfaction and disgust with Democratic rule and Democratic methods among a very large portion of the white people in the State. There is a decided feeling in favor of protection and other doctrines of the Republican party. The white people are prevented from uniting with the present Republican organization in the State because of a dissatisfaction with its record, character and a dislike of its leaders and a disbelief in its ability to command the respect and confidence of a sufficient number of people to place it in control of the State at any time in the future. There is a general desire for a new organization that shall be lead and controlled by native-born good citizens of good character and standing, who have not been identified with any of the disgraceful acts of the old organizations in the State, and thousands of men express themselves ready to come out actively for such an organization if it can be recognized as the Republican party of the State, and given an opportunity to contend with the Democratic organization.

"The Independent movement began in 1878. The organization grew to such proportions in 1883 that it placed a full State ticket in the field, and in 1884 it put a ticket for Blaine and Logan in the field. In both these years it was defeated by the methods which have kept the State Democratic since 1876, but at present its leaders are sanguine that by the time of the next Congressional election it will be able to divide the white vote of the State to such a degree that the election for Congressmen can be fairly held and honestly returned, and in that case there can be no doubt that four or five Republican Congressmen will be elected from that State. The Democratic leaders are extremely hostile to this Independent movement because they fear it. It promises to secure honest elections, and when such are held in South Carolina it will be a Republican State. We have nothing to lose by trying the new departure and much to gain.

Mr. Dudley concludes:

"I am satisfied that the true course for the National Republican Committee and of the National Administration is to recognize favorably the Independent party. I believe it is beyond question that if the Independent movement is recognized fully and sustained and assisted by the National Republican party, that several Republican members of Congress can be returned from that State in the next election. The present policy of ostracism and persecution of persons for their political opinions is keeping that State behind in the race of development and prosperity. If the Independent movement shall divide the white voters, it can not fail to secure to the colored people the enjoyment of their political rights."

The American medical diploma, has in itself no meaning and will never be a true certificate of technical knowledge and education until supplemented by law. He made a sharp attack on homeopathy. The Wrecknge at Martha's Vineyard.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., June 25. THE PROHIBITORY LAW.

Governor Burleigh Calls on the Sheriffs and County Attorneys to Enforce its Provisions.

AUGUSTA, June 25. Governor Burleigh has sent the following communication to all the Sheriffs and County Attorneys in the State:

STATE OF MAINE,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
AUGUSTA, Maine, June 25, 1889.

Sir: My attention has been called by responsible parties to the necessity of a more vigorous enforcement of the law which prohibits the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors except for medicinal and mechanical purposes. Both by constitutional provision and legislative enactment the policy of the State as to prohibition has been firmly established, it is therefore becomes my duty as the Chief Executive to see that the laws be faithfully executed. I have no disposition to shrink from my sworn obligation in this regard.

With confidence I assume that you entirely agree with me as to the binding force of law and as to what is imperatively demanded of those who have been chosen to execute it in its spirit and according to its intent, and that its enforcement against the liquor traffic is as imperative as against other criminal transactions. I call your special attention to what the public has the right to expect of all executive officers of the State, of the counties and of the municipalities, and ask your co-operation in maintaining the authority of law by a vigorous and persistent prosecution of its violators, trusting in so doing, to receive the approval of all law-abiding citizens.

Very Respectfully,
(Signed) EDWIN C. BURLEIGH,
Governor.

The organization of English companies, composed of the leading iron and steel makers of Great Britain, will build extensive steel and iron works, including four new furnaces, steel rail mill, and a rolling mill, at a town at Cumberland Gap, on the dividing line between Tennessee and Kentucky, the name of the town to be Middlesborough, Ky. For a year they have been buying mineral lands, preparing for railroad connections, etc., and this work has been vigorously but quietly pushed by the American Association (Limited), the name of the parent company.

Over $4,000,000 in Cash

has been paid out and upwards of 50,000 acres of mineral land purchased and over $700,000 more pledged for the new enterprise. In addition to contracts for four furnaces, steel works and rolling mill and pipe works, to cost in the aggregate $3,000,000, there will be a $700,000 hotel and sanitarium, in which many leading physicians of Europe and this country are interested; three hotels to cost $200,000, four coal mines, representing $500,000 and a $500,000 tannery. Other enterprises, including electric lights and gas works, saw mills, brick yard, and railroad shops have been arranged. The total investments already secured aggregate $10,000,000 in cash.

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

The daughter of Mr. Jordan Carville, of Lewiston, is missing and fears for her safety are entertained. The young lady has been teaching school at Greene. It is thought traces of her whereabouts have been found at Meoban's Falls and her father left for that place this afternoon.

The third annual meeting of the Androscoggin Horse Breeders and Driving Association will be held at the State Fair grounds, Lewiston, June 25, 26 and 27. Sixteen hundred dollars in premiums are offered, and a splendid field of trotters entered to compete for the prizes. On the first day the 3 minute and the 2.35 classes will trot; on the second the 2.40 and the 2.30 classes; and on the third day the 2.45 class and the free for all, the latter for a purse of $500. These races are full of interest and no doubt will prove a great attraction. The great free for all draw a crowd. In this probably nine horses will start.

At the next annual State meeting of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, to be held in Lewiston during the last week in this month the only business of importance will be to decide upon the place and time of the next annual field day. The cordial invitation of Bailey Division No. 2 to spend three days in August in this city will probably be accepted. The Belfast people propose to decorate the town for their guests, lodge them at the commodious hotel just built, and entertain them with sails, drives, an old fashioned clam bake, and one of those brilliant receptions for which the coming Penobscot Bay summer resort is noted.

Somerset.

The first of the bicycle locomotives furnished by the Portland Company will be shipped to Long Island, N. Y., where Mr. Boynton is having two miles of track constructed.

A new shoe manufactory, with a plant of considerable magnitude, is to be located in the two upper stories of the large brick building on the corner of Cross and Fore streets, Portland. This building was formerly a hotel known as the Commercial House, but of late years it has been leased by manufacturers and store keepers. It is a commodious and substantial building, and will make a desirable place for a shoe factory.

The dead body of a man was found in Portland harbor, Saturday. It was subsequently identified as that of John Burke, of Sherbrooke street, a blacksmith employed by the Portland company. Mr. Burke left home a week ago Saturday, and had not since been seen. He was a temperate man, sixty-four years of age, and an old resident of the city. He leaves a widow and children. Coroner Gould will make investigation as far as possible into the circumstances of the death.

Aroostook.

On Monday, July 1, the new steamer Kennebec will go on the route between Boston and Gardiner. She will leave Gardiner Mondays and Thursdays and Boston on Tuesdays and Fridays. The Star leaves for Boston immediately after discharging her freight on Saturday, and will leave that city every Monday and Thursday, returning Tuesdays and Fridays.

Rev. George R. Palmer, financial agent of Kent's Hill Seminary, returned Saturday from Kennebunkport where he attended the meeting of Methodist ministers. During the past two weeks Mr. Palmer has obtained about $1600 in subscriptions for the new seminary building, swelling the amount already obtained to about $2600. A careful canvass of parishioners in the Maine conference and of the alumni of the institution will be made.

Washington.

Architect E. E. Lewis returned to Augusta Saturday from Calais where he examined the location of the new national bank for which he is to draw plans. The building will be of brick and cost $20,000.

Short Cuts.

There is one man who has unshaken confidence in Stanley. His agent is in London arranging a lecture tour for the explorer, beginning in October.

A Pennsylvania Railroad conductor is under arrest for pulling the bell-cord of a train on which he was travelling as a passenger in order to stop it at a station where the train did not halt.

Yellow hair is the fashion now in Paris. A few weeks ago it was the exception. Now a hundred instances of dyed hair may be seen in the equipages of fashionable ladies in the Bois de Boulogne any day.

Mamma—"Bobby, I notice that your little sister took the smaller apple. Did you let her have her choice, as I told you to?" Bobby—"Yes, I told her she could have the little one or none, and she chose the little one."

At M. Cornuschi's great fancy ball the other evening, M. Zola appeared as a friar, with his handsome wife as a Norman peasant; M. Munkacsy was a sixteenth-century German, M. Daudet was a lawyer, M. Petit a Zulu chief, and Mme. Bernadetti had an Eiffel tower on her head, a yard high, set with diamonds.

Professor William Hyde Appleton has been elected temporary president of Swarthmore College, to succeed Dr. Magill, who has tendered his resignation after a term of eighteen years. Professor Appleton is a graduate of Harvard University, and has been professor of Greek in Swarthmore for seventeen years.

St. Gaudens, the sculptor, says his statue of Dr. McCosh is the best piece of work he has ever done. It was unveiled at Princeton on Tuesday, and Dr. McCosh is represented as half leaning with one elbow on an upright pulpit desk, with the other hand partially extended. It is of life size and the portraiture is excellent.

Dr. Atticus G. Haywood, never weary in well-doing, is now going to Alabama to found a college for girls at Sheffield. In his letter accepting the invitation, he says: "For the young men of my race, I did what I could in Emory College; for the black people I have done my best; if I can, with God's favor, do something worthy the white girls of the South, I shall count it among my chief joys."

In 1881 there were only two Christian Endeavor societies in existence, having a membership of 63. Now there are 6,600 societies with a membership of 400,000; and societies are being organized at the rate of 100 a week. The international convention of the societies, which is to be held in Philadelphia, July 9, 10 and 11, promises to be the largest and most enthusiastic convention of any kind ever held in this country.

The parents of George Kennan, the noted Siberian traveller, live in Medina, N. Y. Kennan lived there for some years and his wife is a native of Medina. Mr. and Mrs. Kennan will soon go to Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, where they will pass the summer. Mr. Kennan will occupy himself with hunting, fishing, and editing the large amount of matter relating to his Siberian trip yet unpublished. In the fall he will issue a book on Siberia and the exile system employed by Russia.

Says Seth Thomas, the clock manufacturer: "The dial of the clocks which we make for China is marked, in lieu of figures, with characters which, I suppose, means something to them. They don't to me. There are three circles of characters, the inner one having eight divisions, the next one twelve, and the outermost twenty-four. There are two hands, the shortest one making a revolution every two hours, while the long takes twenty-four hours to get around. But how they compute time by these is a Chinese puzzle."

A well-known writer thus contrasts the late William Warren and the lamented John Gilbert: "Mr. Gilbert has been compared with William Warren. He had less of the humor in his acting than had Warren, and he was not a man of intellectual mass, but he was broader and more versatile. Warren was always encumbered by a hard and inflexible voice and his comic manner would become tiresome. Gilbert was flexible in voice and manner. Warren had another disadvantage in his stature. Gilbert was a little man, but Warren was under the average height, and he was so broad that he looked dumpy. Gilbert was a little man, but he looked a man among men, and his figure was not the first thing you saw."

Florida is an unhealthy place for lightning rod agents. One of them held a note for $70 against a negro woman at Leesburg. He showed her the note, which she snatched and destroyed. The agent gave her a drubbing, whereupon he was arrested and fined $15 for assault and battery. All he has to show for his $85 is the thrashing he gave the woman.

The ballooning party which made an ascension from Bunker Hill on Monday afternoon had quite an interesting voyage as most of its members anticipated. After ascending to an altitude of nearly 10,000 feet they dropped to within 100 feet of the earth at a rate which made breathing difficult. The quick discharge of considerable ballast enabled them to rise again, but ten minutes later they were floundering in Quincy Bay and yelling for help at the top of their voices. The average mortal can understand why a professional aeronaut should be willing to assume such risks, since he makes his living by sensiling. But why men who gain nothing at all by going should care to make the venture is a mystery to nearly all.

The Fashions.

[From the New York Evening Post.]

Directoire redingotes of cream-white pilot cloth or camel's hair, with cricket caps to match, are imported for coaching and seaside uses. Some of these elegantly made garments are wholly unadorned, while others have the skirts and hoods lined with old rose, reseda, or terrracotta silk, with a bit of color on the cap to correspond.

Some of the negligee corsages on new Empire tailor-made gowns represent a shirt-waist of corded silk, and below this is a pointed girdle trimmed with fine lines of gold braid. There are rows of the braid also down the fronts of the loose waist, which is fastened with small gold buttons.

The fabrics composing the gown, waistcoat and skirt-front very frequently differ in kind, for example, a dress of reseda India cloth has a vest of pale golden-tan faille, with a soft cream-tinted shirt-front, or again, and old-rose Henrietta cloth has a tea-rose skirt-front of China silk laid in fine pleats, with a three-button vest below of deep-claret velvet. The dress fabric is laid next to the side of the vest, with velvet revers tapering from the shoulders to a point below the belt.

Although in great vogue, the straight, full, undraped Empire skirts do not please universally, and slight draperies are seen everywhere. Kilted skirts are still very popular, appearing upon tennis and yachting suits and negligee costumes for the beach and country. Some of the fashionable draperies are arranged very long front and back, leaving both sides of the skirt uncovered from the belt down. The front drapery drops in a point towards the left side, and graceful Grecian foulds are caught up lightly on the right side, to meet similar folds descending from the left hip. The back draperies are still confined to a very narrow space, but they are very full and hang straight, are very slightly draped, or open all the way up the back, disclosing the lower skirt.

For the summer are now semi-diaphanous silk and wool fabrics for mourning, imitating China crapes; also a very handsome surah called "Sarah Antoinette," with fine diagonal lines, which is designed for light mourning. Barred and striped black-and-white surahs, India silks, with black grounds sprinkled with white flowers, and white grounds with all-over arabesque designs, geometrical and fine floral patterns, are also exhibited. White, black-and-gray zephyr ginghams follow very closely the handsomest patterns in summer silks.

PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

Psoriasis 8 years. Head, arms, and breast a solid scab. Back covered with boils. Best doctors and medicines fail. Cured by Cuticura remedies at a cost of $8.75.

I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES with the best results. I used two bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for eight years. It would get better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab, and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scabs from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab, and my back covered with sores varying in size from a penney to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think, incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA.

ARCHER RUSSELL, Dealer, Ohio.

Skin Disease 8 Years Cured.

I am thankful to say that I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES for about eight months with great success, and consider myself entirely cured of salt rheum, from which I have suffered for six years.
